Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

As requested in our conversation last Thursday, I am sending you the enclosed material with reference to the Institute of the Aeronautical Sciences, its objectives and its membership. I would, of course, be glad to supplement this material in any way that would be of interest.

There now appears to be a possibility that I will be in Washington again on Thursday, 9 December or Friday, 10 December and I could make myself available at any time on either one of those two days. If you would let me know what time would be the most convenient for you, I will make my plans accordingly. I appreciate very much the time you gave to me on Thursday.

I am looking forward to further discussion on the subject if it proves to be of interest to you.

Kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

S. Paul Johnston
